

Disclaimer required for every publication/presentation clearance:

- “The opinions and assertions expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not reflect the official policy or position of the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences or the Department of Defense.”

NOTE: Contractors must follow their employer’s guidance on adding additional disclaimers, but under no circumstance should a contractor disclaimer be melded into a USU disclaimer; they must be separate.

Disclaimers required if applicable to any publication/presentation by a military or civilian Federal employee, and may be warranted by a contractor:

- “Neither I nor my family members have a financial interest in any commercial product, service, or organization providing financial support for this research.”
- “References to non-Federal entities or products do not constitute or imply a Department of Defense or Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences endorsement.”
- “This research protocol was reviewed and approved by the [insert entity name] [insert either institutional review board (IRB) or institutional animal care and use committee (IACUC)] in accordance with all applicable Federal regulations governing the protection of animals in research.”
- “This work was prepared by a military or civilian employee of the US Government as part of the individual’s official duties and therefore is in the public domain and does not possess copyright protection (public domain information may be freely distributed and copied; however, as a courtesy it is requested that the Uniformed Services University and the author be given an appropriate acknowledgement).
